ALLERGEN CHECK

Milk is standard. Nuts, seeds and gluten depend on the granola and toppings selected.

Inspect. Protect. Serve.

Supplier-purchased items need no complex recipes—only disciplined handling.

01 Check use-by date
02 Inspect product and packaging
03 Protect from contamination
04 Use clean utensils
05 Verify supplier allergen information

Croissants

SERVE

Confirm the use-by date and condition—no mould or damage. Place on a clean serving plate or in a clean bag, then serve to order.

WHEAT / GLUTEN • MILK • EGGS
Always confirm supplier information.

Muffins

01 Check date and inspect

02 Use clean tongs—or gloves where required

03 Place on a clean plate and serve

Allergens vary by flavour and supplier.

Banana bread

Covered until the moment it’s served.

Check the product date. Keep covered to prevent contamination. Slice only with clean utensils, place on a clean serving plate, and serve.

POSSIBLE: WHEAT / GLUTEN • EGGS • MILK • NUTS
Recipe-dependent—verify before serving.

Brownies

Clean cut.
Clean plate.

Check the date and keep brownies covered. Use clean utensils for both slicing and serving, then place on a clean plate.

POSSIBLE: WHEAT / GLUTEN • EGGS • MILK SOY • NUTS — check supplier information.

Five golden rules

Aligned with WHO Five Keys to Safer Food and FoodSafety.gov Clean, Separate, Cook and Chill.

Before every plate leaves the counter

- ✓ Wash hands before preparation
- ✓ Clean and prepare the workstation
- ✓ Separate raw and cooked foods and equipment
- ✓ Cook and toast foods completely
- ✓ Refrigerate perishables properly
- ✓ Check dates and product condition
- ✓ Verify supplier allergen information
- ✓ Confirm the customer’s allergen requirements

Safe food handling protects our customers—and CoffeeNChill’s reputation.
